Comes now, Lynn L. 1. On or about August 19, 2011, the Trustee and her proposed counsel Paula S. Beran ("Ms. Beran") of the law firm of Tavenner & Beran, PLC, upon permission of this Honorable Court, gained access to a certain storage facility (the "Storage Facility") leased by the Debtor at Broad Street Mini Storage, 3950 Deep Rock Road, Richmond, Virginia 23233.

2. Upon entry into the Storage Facility, the Trustee and Ms. Beran located bags and boxes of various items. See Exhibits A through C for pictures of the same.

3. Upon further examination, the contents of the Storage Facility consisted primarily of the following category of items: (1) mail addressed to the Debtor and/or what appeared to be related entities, (2) check books and bank account documents for various entities, (3) personal documents, (4) personal items including but not limited to belts, shoes, markers, reading books, magazines, and (5) miscellaneous currency consisting primarily of pennies and nickels (the "Located Property").

3. Given the size and nature of the Located Property, and in an attempt to terminate any potential claim for an administrative expense in the Bankruptcy Case, the Trustee and Ms. Beran loaded the Located Property into the back of counsel's automobile and transported the same to the Trustee's law office at 20 N. 8th Street, Richmond, Virginia 23219. See Exhibit D attached hereto for a picture of the same.

4. The Located Property is currently secured and stored at 20 N. 8th Street, Richmond, Virginia 23219.

Dated: August 24, 2011
